

Government Schemes Management System:

Problem Statement:

Government launches many welfare schemes, but their management is mostly manual, causing delays, lack of transparency, and difficulty in tracking beneficiaries and fund utilization. Our project aims to build a Salesforce-based centralized platform where citizens can apply for schemes, officials can verify and approve applications, funds can be tracked, grievances can be managed, and real-time dashboards can help the government monitor the overall performance of the schemes.